

Downtown Brooklyn Financing + Incentive Programs

There are a number of valuable incentives and savings programs available for commercial and industrial businesses that relocate to Downtown Brooklyn, expand to additional space, make capital improvements, or open a new location in the district. Downtown Brooklyn Partnership can help you navigate the application process and connect with the right city and state agency contacts to learn more about these opportunities.

Expansion + Relocation Benefits

Relocation and Employment Assistance Program (REAP)

About: REAP offers annual business income tax credits of up to $3,000 per relocated employee and new subsequent jobs. The credit is renewable for twelve years, and is refundable as a credit on NYC's business tax return for the first five years of participation in the program if the benefit exceeds tax liability.

Eligibility: Industrial and commercial businesses, excluding retail and hotels, that relocate at least one employee from outside NYC or from Manhattan (south of 96th Street) to other areas of the city including Downtown Brooklyn. Property improvement expenditure criteria must be met.

Administering agency: NYC
Department of Finance (DOF)

Learn more

Commercial Rent Tax Exemption (CRT)

About: Downtown Brooklyn is not subject to the tax on commercial rent that is levied in certain parts of Manhattan, thus providing your business with significant tax savings.

Eligibility: All businesses that rent commercial space in Downtown Brooklyn.

Administering agency: NYC
Department of Finance (DOF)

Learn more

Assistance to Offset the Cost of Construction

Industrial and Commercial Abatement Program (ICAP)

About: ICAP provides a property tax abatement for up to 25 years for new construction or renovation of commercial and industrial buildings. These benefits can be passed through the landlord to business tenants as a rent abatement.

Eligibility: Industrial and commercial buildings that are newly built, modernized, or expanded in eligible areas of NYC including Downtown Brooklyn. The cost of improvements must be greater than or equal to 30% of the property's taxable assessed value and construction must be completed no later than five years from the issuance of a building permit.

Administering agency: NYC Department of Finance (DOF)

Learn more

Commercial Expansion Program (CEP)

About: CEP offers a property tax abatement of up to $2.50 per square foot for new, expansion, and renewal leases. The abatement period ranges from three to five years dependent on lease term. These benefits can be passed through the landlord to business tenants as a rent abatement.

Eligibility: Non-residential and mixed-use buildings constructed prior to 1999 in eligible areas of NYC including Downtown Brooklyn. Property improvement expenditure criteria must be met.

Administering agency: NYC Department of Finance (DOF)

Learn more

Energy Efficiency Programs

Energy Cost Savings Program (ECSP)

About: ECSP offers up to 45% savings on regulated electric costs and up to 35% savings on natural gas costs for twelve years. Benefits last in full for eight years, followed by a four-year phase-out period with benefits decreasing by 20% per year.

Eligibility: Industrial and commercial businesses that relocate from outside NYC or from Manhattan (south of 96th Street) to other areas of the city including Downtown Brooklyn.

Administering agency: NYC Department of Small Business Services (SBS)

Learn more

New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA) Commercial Programs

About: NYSERDA manages several programs to promote energy-efficient buildings and operations and capture the associated cost savings, including the Commercial Tenant Program, which provides up to 100% of the cost of an energy analysis, and the FlexTech program, which provides technical consultation to help businesses evaluate opportunities to reduce energy costs.

Eligibility: Varies by program.

Administering agency: NYSERDA

Learn more

Downtown Brooklyn offers a thriving business culture, exceptional access to talent, a competitive commercial real estate market, and a vibrant live-work environment. For additional information about these incentives or to learn more about locating your business in Downtown, please contact Mark Landolina, Senior Director of Real Estate + Economic Development, at 718-403-1618 or mlandolina@downtownbrooklyn.com.

For more information, visit our website at downtownbrooklyn.com.